

ABERNETHY HIGHLAND GAMES 9 AUGUST 2008 REPORT

The grey skies and drizzle, which caused concern in the morning, gave way to blue skies and sunshine after the opening parade. Games Chieftain Stuart Black, who confidently addressed the crowd in shirt sleeves, declared that it would not rain in the afternoon, and being a farmer, he knows about these things. True to form, he was right, and nearly 3000 spectators, blessed with a sunny sky, were treated to an excellent day of excitement, colour, music and action on the field.

Paid admissions were just short of last year's numbers, but the quality of the competition and the enthusiasm of the spectators more than compensated.

The popular morning programme of children's fun events continues to go from strength to strength, and attracted a large and vocal crowd of all ages; the wheelbarrow race was particularly popular, contributing to the happy atmosphere of the rather grey and drizzly morning.

Taking part in a special demonstration event in the morning was a group of young junior heavies from Lochaber, giving spectators a taste of the competitors of the future. Such was the standard of their display, two of the youngsters stayed on to compete.

The stirring opening parade saw the massed pipes and drums of seven bands march on to the field followed by the members of the Clan Grant Society led by their chairman, Sir Archibald Grant, and the Chief of Grant, Lord Strathspey. Over 150 bandsmen took part including two bands from abroad, the Somme Battlefield Pipe Band from France, and The Waratah & Thistle Pipes and Drums from Australia, who made many new friends on the day.

The crowd were treated to a spectacular display three more times during the afternoon, as well as a special morning performance by the visiting Australians.

Bill Blacklaw judged the local Badenoch and Strathspey Pipe Band as the winner in the Pipe band competition, awarding them the Pipe Band Challenge Shield.

The track & field competitors who braved the early morning rain were rewarded with perfect conditions on a sunny and dry afternoon. Sixty-two competitors took part in the events, and although overall numbers were slightly down on last year, the junior and senior heavy competitor numbers were up.

The Heavy events provided wonderful entertainment, with stiff competition and some great performances, particularly from Alistair Gunn, who scooped the Scottish Senior Heavyweight Championship with Sinclair Patience in second and Marc Morin in third place. Alistair also won the Open heavy event with Sinclair Patience second and David Hart third.

The local heavy events were won by Brian Harrold of Nethy Bridge and Ian Thomson from Tomintoul took second place. The Scottish Junior Heavyweight Championship was won by Dale Walker with Greg Walker in second place and Rory Purvis in third place. Seven senior and seven junior competitors competed in the games.

In the RSPB Abernethy Forest 10 Mile Race a good field of 89 runners participated, running in good conditions, dry, bright, but cool enough. First home was Ross Houston of Central AC in 55.14 and first lady home was Jacqui Higginbottom of Carnethy in 68.15. In the Team competition Moray RR came in at 4 hr 16 min 23 sec.

Dancing numbers are reversing the previous downward trend and again the entry was well up on last year, with 100 dancers competing. Dancers came from as far afield as John o' Groats and London, Edinburgh and Islay to take part in what is re-establishing itself as a "must do" event on the circuit. There were also competitors from USA and Australia.

On the Dancing stages, Amber Donaldson from Kirriemuir was best overall beginner taking the AHG Highland Dancing Trophy, whilst the Jessie Watt Scroll for best overall novice went to Lynne Atkins from Dunblane. Best intermediate was Carmen Watt taking the GD Gray Silver Salver, and the Culreach Cup, for best local over 12 went to Nicola Lowdon.

Stars of the show, in the Premier Class, both Robyn Hart-Winks from Kirriemuir, and Anthea Bundy from Grangemouth, made a clean sweep of all 6 dances in their respective age classes, sharing the Abernethy Games Trophy (for Highland dances) in a two way tie, and the Clan Grant Society Cup (National dances) in a four way tie with Melissa Fife and Laura Smith. Best overseas competitor, Colleen McGregor followed her successes of the last 4 years by winning the 16 yrs Premier Class.

While the turnout for the senior piping events was marginally down this year, the junior events were again popular. An enthusiastic line up of 123 talented pipers produced a high standard of playing and keen competition. The judges were unanimous in their praise for the high standards achieved in both the junior and senior competitions. Local and Junior events judge, Jim Hamilton once again gave every competitor advice and encouragement and was particularly impressed this year by the playing of Charlie MacDonald of Inverness. In the senior events Judges Duncan Watson and Sandy Spence highly commended the playing of Niall Matheson of Inverness.

In a new turn for the games, the junior solo drumming competition entry was encouraging. Judge John Moneagle of Kingussie commended both the competitors for their performances and the Abernethy Highland Games for creating the new event at the instigation of one young drummer, and for which a cup has now been presented.

Chairman of Abernethy Highland Games Association Neil Sutherland commented after the Games "Once again the weather came up trumps for the "friendly Games". I've had some very positive feedback from competitors and spectators alike, who commented on the welcoming and happy atmosphere. We are grateful to the youngsters of Lochaber for taking the time to demonstrate their skills, and hope this will encourage our local youngsters to think about getting involved in the sport. The Australian bandsmen thoroughly enjoyed their day and we are particularly grateful to them, and the Somme Battlefield Pipe Band for contributing to the atmosphere and success of the Games. This success was achieved thanks to the hard work of a great number of volunteers, local businesses and organisations from the community of Nethybridge and surrounding area."
